

"Put Your Best Face Forward"

HUNGRY HOWIE'S PIZZA is the June recipient of the monthly "Put Your Best Face Forward" merchant award presented by the City of Perry.

Owned by Kevin Dittrich, the local pizzeria recently underwent a facelift, providing a new look and more spacious lobby for guests.

Located on Britton Road behind McDonald's and next to China Garden, the eatery is open seven days a week and has a drive-up window and delivery service available. In addition to the popular flavored crust pizza, Hungry Howie's has a wide array of delectable food items on the menu to satisfy the palate, including sandwiches. Meal deals are also available for any budget, ranging from $5 to $20.

The Hungry Howie's team is also very active and dedicated in the community serving as key volunteers of several local events, including National Night Out, PerryFest and Hometown Country Christmas as well as school-related activities.

Area Directors Michele Follman (right) and her husband Brad Follman (far back), proudly accepted the award from Councilmember Greg Wekwert (left). Also pictured are their two daughters, Rebecca and Rachel. Michele has worked for Hungry Howie's for 9 years and Brad has been a team member for 8.5 years. The Perry store will celebrate its 10 year anniversary in October.

Judging for "Put Your Best Face Forward," is based on overall appearance, clean sidewalks and windows, window presentation, flower displays (weeded and watered) and absence of trash.

As this month's winner, Hungry Howie's earned the right to display the traveling trophy in the business for one month.
