

"Put Your Best Face Forward"

OUR TOWN Family Theater is this month's recipient of the "Put Your Best Face Forward" award presented by the City of Perry.

Operated by Vickie St. John, of Perry, the local theater group, is located in uptown Perry on South Main Street, between Pink Shear Pet Spa and Unique by Nature.

As director, St. John said the theater group is a fun opportunity for all ages to bond together as well as a great opportunity for family togetherness. She uses scripts that are adaptable for various ages and the number of people involved.

Deeming the first season performance of "Johnny Appleseed" a "big success," St. John said they are now preparing for auditions for "Pocahontas." Auditions for the second season performance will be Monday, Sept. 8, with the performance slated for mid-October at Williamston High School.

All ages are encouraged to audition for some "Fun in the Arts."

Judging for "Put Your Best Face Forward," is based on overall appearance, clean sidewalks and windows, window presentation, flower displays (weeded and watered) and absence of trash.

As this month's winner, Our Town Family Theater earns the right to display the traveling trophy in the business for one month.
