

Calkins-Macqueen House

Donation Form

The Calkins-Macqueen house is owned and maintained by the City of Perry.

The museum, which is operated by the Perry Historical Society, www.perryhistoricalsociety.com, is open to the public at no charge.

The historical museum houses hundreds of items, large and small lovingly donated by the many families that have called Perry home.

The Macqueen House Fund, now included in the city's annual budget, needs your support.

Please consider a charitable donation to the Macqueen House Fund. This fund will continue to build with donations and over the years allow ongoing maintenance to be completed on this historical property.

Completed donation forms and payment can be dropped off or mailed to city hall:
