New Business:

- Item #1 for New Business: Jeff Keesler addresses the Planning Commission

Jeff discusses the findings of the recent survey conducted during the Summer Fun Event. Key takeaways include:

- Respondents value close access to state highways.
- Respondents would prefer new single-family homes be built over other housing types.
- Many respondents walk or bike as a means of transportation and value the walkability of the community.
- 83% of respondents get their information from the Perry Facebook page.

Jeff requests the PC consider other options for soliciting more feedback from the community. Lambert offers that a car show taking place on September 16th may be a great opportunity.

Old Business: None applicable
