Report from the Police Committee

Mike Connell read the report from the Committee meeting, which was on May 17, 2023. The committee is recommending a special assessment of $190.00 annually, with an increase up to 5% annually to build the General Fund by paying a portion of the Police Department budget. The committee also recommended ending the Mutual Aid Agreement with the Village of Morrice. Chief Bawks reported that if the Village of Morrice needed assistance, Perry would still assist if needed. Porter stated he was not happy with another tax being assessed. Chief Bawks reported for statical purposes that the City of Perry Police Department has 80 years between the offices employed. Lambert stated that Meggen had information on where taxes are distributed throughout the county.
